Date Wednesday 1st April 2020 Affirmation of the day: I am fantastic. It is April 1st. Did anyone in the family play any tricks or jokes, or did you have fun designing your own? Traditionally they are supposed to happen before midday. Why not record them in your journal today and don't forget to say how the recipient reacted. Do you know why we do this on April 1st in this country? Find out and let me know. One of the most famous pranks in this country was on television in 1957. Click here to watch it. This You Tube film gives some background to the story and why it was made. Enjoy!

Maths	Our Learning Objective for today is to find the area of rectilinear shapes. Today we will make our own shapes, following instructions to create given areas. https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/year-4-diving-into-mastery-making-shapes-teaching-pack-t-m-30757 Now have a go at the worksheets, making sure you're really understanding – please don't rush through.	Focus on the 'deepest' questions. Really think carefully and make sure your feedback to Sorcha uses clear mathematical language.
English reading	Read some fun facts about Superman on this website: https://www.ducksters.com/biography/superman.php	How could you use the information you've read in your story? Perhaps his problem is caused by his arch enemy? Does he think back to the values of his adoptive parents in Kansas?
English writing	Our Learning Objective for today is to write using the best words we know and the best sentence structures we can. Now take your plan from yesterday and expand it into a well-written and presented story. Use your best handwriting skills to expand it into a proper story, use correct spellings and punctuation, lay out the paragraphs appropriately and add in detail as you go. I'm expecting at least four paragraphs in your story.	Use your pink polishing pen (or purple perfecting pen, or blue bettering pen, or red rewriting pen – can't think of a green one) to make three significant improvements to your work. You could add fronted adverbials or a prepositional phrase, improve your words using the thesaurus or expand a noun phrase.

	Did you read last week's story to someone? Have a think and read your story to someone you haven't spoken to for a while – I'm sure there's a classmate who'd like to hear it.
English SPAG	A wide selection of SPAG activities to choose from here. Select one for today. https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/t2-e-3725-year-4-english-revision-morning-starter-weekly-1-powerpoint-pack	Write out examples carefully being sure that all spelling and punctuation are correct – not just the focus of the question.
Afternoon learning Science, Art, DT, Topic, Music/RE	Art this afternoon. Make a collage of the view from your window to either stick directly into your journal or photograph and stick in the photo. https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/art-and-design-ks1-ks2-creating-a-collage-landscape/zfrfbdm Back with Emma this week to learn about collage. Don't worry if you've only a limited range of scraps, different coloured paper torn from an old magazine can work equally well.

Journal Entry	It might be a useful way to wind down from a day's work and play to talk through events and record the highlights (and perhaps some of the other events without dwelling on worries or anxieties) in your journal.
