Maths	Our Learning Objective for today is to find the area of rectilinear shapes. Today we will compare the area of shapes and explain our reasoning clearly. https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/year-4-diving-into-mastery-comparing-area-teaching-pack-t-m-30787 Now have a go at the worksheets, making sure you're really understanding – please don't rush through.	Focus on the 'deepest' questions, making sure you really explain why using the correct language.
English reading	Our Learning Objective for today is to ask questions about what has been read to help understand a complicated text. There were lots of short reading texts given on Friday. Select one that you haven't talked about and, after reading, have a chat based on the associated questions. https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/t2-e-4867-lks2-60-second-reads-bumper-activity-pack
English writing	Do SPAG first. Our Learning Objective for today is to plan a story by discussing and recording ideas. Using the picture, your sheet from SPAG and the story opener provided if you choose, now draw a storyboard or use a form of plan that works well for you, to plan out your Superman story.	Use detail in your plan – where did he land, was it a hard or soft landing, did his cloak flap round him as he landed?
English SPAG	Do this first. Have a look at the Pobble picture from yesterday and the sentences you wrote or changed. On a nice, big piece of paper, and using different coloured pencils or pens, make a poster for yourself of adjectives, similes, metaphors and	Make sure you're dipping into the thesaurus and not using 'tired' words.

Afternoon learning Science, Art, DT, Topic, Music/RE	Read the information about Victorian prisons and have a chat about the differences between punishment now-a-days and in the past. https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/tp2-h-141-new-planit-history-lks2-crime-and-punishment-lesson-5-victorian-prisons-lesson-pack	Use the worksheets to write a diary entry as a prisoner in Pentonville. Try and relate your feelings to your experiences – My poor hands, torn from picking oakum long day in and day out, ache as I write this diary entry.
French/Spanish
Journal Entry	It might be a useful way to wind down from a day's work and play to talk through events and record the highlights (and perhaps some of the other events without dwelling on worries or anxieties) in your journal.
